GAVE $3,500 BOND

Dr. Charles M. Beach's Case Continued Until Next May Term

Dr. Charles M. Beach, who left Vanceburg last September while under bond charged with the murder of Hiram Luman, returned Saturday morning and voluntarily surrendered to the custody of the Circuit Court.

By agreement the case was set for trial at the May term of Court.

Motion for bail was at once made, and Judge Harbeson, after hearing the evidence, decided that the Doctor was entitled to bail and fixed the same at $3,500 which was at once given.

There has been a great change in public sentiment, favorable to Dr. Beach, since the facts have been developed.

Laziness, idleness and loafing are three main highways to the almshouse.

A man who walks with his hands behind him shows that he hasn't any ambition to use them.

FAME AND INFAMY

The Latest Effort to Deify the Late William Goebel

Winchester Sun-Sentinel.

A member of the Legislature—I don't care to remember his name—has introduced a bill to appropriate $10,000 for the purpose of placing in the Capitol at Washington statues of Henry Clay and William Goebel. If it is the purpose of this member to have Kentucky represented by types of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, he is to be commended for the idea. Clay will fittingly represent Jekyll and we know of no character that will better represent Hyde than that of William Goebel. We have no objection to men worshipping at the shrine of Goebel, but when they seek to make him a representative of our Kentucky manhood and statesmanship, we have a right to protest. In his public life he never represented anything that was good.

While Senator he used all of his influence against temperance legislation. He was the author of the most infamous election law that has cursed any people. He stole the Democratic nomination for Governor and then stole the office after he was defeated at the polls. We take no pleasure in speaking of the evil deeds of the dead, and would not do so but for the fact that it is forced upon us by such things as this effort to deify one who represented all that is bad in Kentucky politics and nothing that is good. We defy any one to show by the public life of William Goebel that he is entitled to be honored above such men as Abraham Lincoln, Jefferson Davis, John C. Breckinridge, Joel T. Hart, James B. Beck, John J. Crittenden, Joshua F. Speed and many others that could be named. If the state is to be disgraced by the passage of this bill, let it rest on those who vote for it, and not on the noble people of Kentucky, of which William Goebel is in no sense a type.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

The Rev. J. M. Evans of this city preached yesterday at Catlettsburg.

STONE—BARBER.

Mr. Elmer Stone, aged 21, and Miss Sallie Barber, aged 21, both of Bath county, were married in the County Clerk's Office this morning, Judge C. D. Newell officiating.

THOMAS RIDGELEY.

Thomas Ridgeley, an aged and respected citizen, died at his home in East Second street, Sixth Ward, yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock, after an illness dating back since last September.

He was born in Parish of Aymstrey, Herefordshire, England, April 24th, 1822.

He came to America in 1848, and in 1852 was married to Miss Phoebe Craig in Cincinnati.

For the past 40 years, he has lived in Mason county and this city, where he was respected for his integrity and general worth.

Besides a widow, he leaves eleven children—Mrs. R. K. Hoeflich, Mrs. Frank Parker, Mrs. H. M. Dryden of this city, Mrs. E. N. Best and Mrs. Hattie Valentine of the county, Mrs. Mary Young of Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. Emma Arch-deacon of Carlisle, Mrs. Wilson Hill, Mr. Herbert Ridgeley and Mrs. Martha Martin of Iowa, and Mr. George Ridgeley of Denver, Col.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed, but will be published in tomorrow's LEDGER.

MRS. LOUISA COBB.

Mrs. Louisa Cobb, relict of William Cobb, who preceded her to the grave many years ago, died Friday night of intestinal grip at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Lape, near Fort Thomas.

The deceased was 78 years old. She leaves six children.

The remains were brought to this city and taken to the home of her son, Mr. Dan Cobb, in Forest avenue.

The funeral will take place from the house this afternoon at 1 o'clock, services by Rev. C. W. Chadwick.
Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

Joseph H. Richart, for seventy years in business, worth $100,000 and aged 91, died at Owingsville.

In obedience to will of William Burns, an octogenarian who died in St. Louis, his ashes were cast to the bosom of the Mississippi river from the Eads Bridge.

The Sensation of the Season

I am going to enter upon a sensational cut in prices of High-Grade Goods, the like of which has never been known in this vicinity. My stock is immensely large, the quality is the best, the variety is the greatest. Therefore I am prepared to make it greatly to the interest of all who may want first-class goods at the lowest prices to buy of me. In this space it is my intention to each week give notice of special sales of seasonable goods that will astonish all and which can't help but largely increase my sales. These specials will begin next week, and will be changed about once each week by inserting something new. My first sale will be of

Canned Goods

So watch for it, as every one who takes advantage of these sales is guaranteed to save from 10 to 25 per cent. on their purchases. Remember, every article sold will be guaranteed to be just as recommended or money will be refunded on return of goods.
